

32 graduates needed for two-year global career climb

Join the Novo Nordisk Graduate Programme and get a life-changing career. Apply before 12 February 2012 at novonordisk.com/graduates.

Use your Master's degree and get a life-changing career

Novo Nordisk is the world leader in diabetes care. We employ more than 32.000 people in 74 countries. It is our ambition to create a future where everyone's potential can be fulfilled. Including yours!

Right now, we are looking for 32 top-of-the-class graduates for Base Camp, the Novo Nordisk Graduate Programme. Base Camp is a platform for steep career climbing and a unique chance for bringing your skills, your talent and your Master's degree to life in a global landscape.

As a graduate you will explore the company and learn the Novo Nordisk way in 3-4 job rotations in Denmark as well as internationally. Each graduate programme will be tailored to suit your individual career goals.

Base Camp will kick-start your career and provide you with a strong professional network for your push for the top. We offer 9 different graduate programmes.
