

We will combine a deep understanding of human biology with big data to discover novel disruptive therapies for cardiometabolic diseases

Creativity

Protected time to think big and find game-changing targets

Agility

Flexible self-organising teams that ask for forgiveness not permission

Collaboration

Seamless internal and external collaboration to solve fundamental biological problems